One-Week Workshop from 29.12.2017 to 4.1.2018

Theme: English Language Pedagogy for the Marginalized

ELTIF has actively been intervening in the learning and teaching of English inside and outside the classrooms in Kerala, Mahe, Pondicherry and Tamil Nadu for the last 15 years. It has been organizing Orientation & Training Programmes for teachers, Communicative English Courses for students & Awareness-cum-Support programmes for parents. In the last 15 years we have served hundreds of schools and colleges, and thousands of students. The annual ELTIF events include International & National Conferences & Workshops.

The One-week Workshop will be held in different parts of the tribal belt across the valleys of the Western Ghats in Kannur district in Kerala. Safe and free accommodation at homes of educated families in the nearby town will be provided. Paid accommodation too is available. Local transport to the workshop venues will be taken care of. Participants will be teaching the village children, the non-conventional way, as part of the workshop. Cultural exchange programmes, folk arts and festivals, a trip into the Reserve Forest of Kannavm (Kannur Dt. Kerala), sight-seeing for cultural interaction etc. are parts of the one-week programme.

Journal of ELTIF (ISSN: 2230-7710), a quarterly publication has been publishing papers in ELT, Literature & Cultural Studies for the last eight years. Subscription for 3 years: Rs.600 for individuals & Rs 1200 for institutions. For details of subscription and contributing articles, please contact: eltifjournaleditor@gmail.com 9443282592
